

Together, We're Alone

SayWeCanFly

Sometimes when I turn off the lights
I see them in the walls and I hear them in the halls and Screaming for me in a pitch so deep it's haunting, haunting
In a world where the shadows are tall and the past that we walk on is not pa st at all
Screaming for me and they won't stop till morning, morning

I've seen them countless times and each time growing weaker inside
It's not their fault they've died,
But the fault of the ones who left them behind
And God knows that I know they've tried

But I don't belong here
I don't understand myself at all
But it's okay, dear
Cause I know you'll catch me when I fall
I don't want to be here
But I don't want to leave you till its time
I guess I can stay here
If you promise to hold me till we die, we die, we die

Sometimes when I'm searching for love
There's more to be found, even if I look around
I'm screaming for you, the only thing that calms me, calms me
In a world where the demons will crawl
Even if we pretend not to see them at all
I'm starting to bleed because my chest is burning, burning

I've seen them countless times and each time growing weaker inside
It's not their fault they've died,
It's the fault of the ones who left them behind
And God knows that I know they've tried

But I don't belong here
I don't understand myself at all
But it's okay, dear
Cause I know you'll catch me when I fall
I don't want to be here
But I don't want to leave you till its time
I guess I can stay here
If you promise to hold me till we die, we die, we die

When it feels like you're dead inside
When the world looks so ugly, you'd rather be blind
Keep in mind that you're always home
Cause all of us, all of us, together, we're alone
When you're thinking of suicide
When the thought gives you butterflies
Keep in mind that you're always home
Cause all of us, all of us, together, we're alone

All of us, all of us,
All of us, all of us,
Together, we're alone
(3x)
All of us, all of us! (2x)

But I don't belong here
I don't understand myself at all
But it's okay, dear
Cause I know you'll catch me when I fall
I don't want to be here
But I don't want to leave you till its time
I guess I can stay here
If you promise to hold me till we die, we die, we die
