

They thought I'd cower in fear and break
Thought they got advantage to take
But I guess they're blinded eyes full of hate
I'm gon make them see why

I didn't bend, how could I even break
In every battle lost, know they celebrate
Well it's good to hear their cries when they fail
Praying for my downfall, they thought I would quit

We'll never know, I guess we'll never know
If I would go down, guess we'll never know
No, I don't know, I guess we'll never know
I guess we'll never know, I guess we'll never know

Ah! Ayokong mamatay
They tryna kill the colours in my mind
When all my heart wanted was to be kind, oh
I'm afraid to die alive
Losing myself, trying to be a lie
So I'd be picture perfect in your eyes

Yeah, yeah
I said I'm alright
That's what I would tell them when I would cry
Chose to be kind, but these people so evil, my, my
Come inside, inside of my mind
See I'm wrestling all my demons up on this side
Still faking a smile, I'm fine
But it's gonna take awhile

'Cause I'm all too familiar with this kind of pain
Kahit 'nong gawin, I won't run away
Bukas, makalawa lang alam kong may darating
Na grasya, grasya, grasya

We'll never know, I guess we'll never know
If I would go down, I guess we'll never know
No, I don't know, I guess we'll never know
I guess we'll never know, I guess we'll never

Ah! Ayokong mamatay
They tryna kill the colours in my mind
When all my heart wanted was to be kind, oh
I'm afraid to die alive
Losing myself, trying to be a lie
So I'd be picture perfect in your eyes, oh
