

DRIFT

SBTRKT

Bury the weight, alright
Bury the weight, no flowers
Just give me something
Give me just a couple more hours and I'll make it fade away
Tell me about your love and your pain
Piling up again

They don't wanna let you down, wanna let you go
One truth is- right down the middle
Make my mind a riddle just to know
I was all part of the happening
How it goin', it's all part of the touchin'
Let it all just [?], blackened petals to make you feel good
And I been notin'

Let it go by myself, dizzy, feel good

Bury the weight, alright
Bury the weight, no flowers
Just give me something
Give me just a couple more hours and I'll make it fade away
Tell me about your love and your pain
Piling up again

They don't wanna let this down
They see a way out, go
They don't wanna let this down
Baby, don't worry about me
Just make it my fault, whoa
I'll go

I keep losing you, oh

They don't wanna let you down
Don't worry 'bout my love
Runnin it up, time

Don't worry 'bout my love
Runnin it up, time
