

Spaced Out

SBTRKT

You the one, yeah yeah
Look at how the planets form around you
Please won't you have my sun, yeah yeah
The dark weighs a ton, you thinking I'm gon' run
I had to tell you "don't assume, that's how we end up doomed
What's that called? what's that called when people show they ass?"
Yeah you my moon, yeah yeah

Surrounded by this darkness
I'm asking where your heart went
Still you know you different from these other girls
I put you in a verse, cause you're my universe
I swear you're bigger than my world, yeah yeah

Uh, I'm never all up in your face, shit I know you need your space
And this feeling that we chase, I can't erase
I'm trying to make sure we don't feel harm
This uncharted, I feel like Neil Armstrong
Minded, raw timing, long as we alive you can't be mad at me
Shit, man you be asking me "can I really be your gravity?"
I swear I hold you down right, I hold you down, right?
'Til every molecule is broken down like
Go on fix your sight
Don't let the fact that I'm a star ever taint us
I know you love to show your anus
I forgot that you're my moon, yeah yeah

Surrounded by this darkness
I'm asking where your heart went
Still you know you different from these other girls
I put you in a verse, cause you're my universe
I swear you're bigger than my world, yeah yeah

Uh, so get with it
God damn it, don't panic, uh
I know your mind clouded, we ain't plan it
Not to rain on your parade but it's more sunny if you come this way
Uh, it ain't no flooding if you come this way
So girl it ain't no slippin
Uh, I got you grounded now I'm digging, tryin' to turn you 'to my victim
Man, I swear to god that the only thing I want is you
I guarantee it ain't no number two, no number two, no number two

Cause you the one, yeah, yeah
Look at how the planets form around you
Please won't you have my sun, yeah yeah
The dark weighs a ton, you thinking I'm gon' run
I had to tell you "don't assume"
