

Anyway

Scarlet Pleasure

I can't fake it
Have to say it
Find it hard to let you go
And I keep on thinking 'bout
What this could have been
Well I guess we'll never know

Go find someone you're cool with
Who don't mind the bullshit
Someone to rely on
A shoulder you can cry on
I know you need that spotlight
Not a man who's childlike
We showed a lot of promise
But since we're being honest
It's like we're night and day
Nothing left to say
It won't last anyway

No it won't last
Anyway

And I will be
A memory
You can leave me way behind
So much changed and
It feel so strange when
When it's time to say goodbye

Go find someone you're cool with
Who don't mind the bullshit
Someone to rely on
A shoulder you can cry on
I know you need that spotlight
Not a man who's childlike
We showed a lot of promise
But since we're being honest
It's like we're night and day
It won't last anyway

No it won't last
It won't last
Anyway
No it won't last
Anyway
