Scarlet Pleasure

Blind man, blind man talks
Couldn't hate with his imagination
Couldn't see the moon through the window, oh
I've been, I've been lost
Tryna find my part in human nature
Tryna see my souls through a window

Heard that I was done and my time's up
Heard I had to build from the ground, up
Heard that they was painting me
With no paint on the picture
But I'll paint you the picture
It's easier to believe it
It's easier to see it through the screens
'Cause it sounds so bright
When we're all just living that dream

All these flaws, all these flaws they may
Leave a few cuts and scrapes
To the day my days are done
I wouldn't let all these falls
Make these old bones break
Finally found my wave
Bless the day, bless the day

Blessing, on, blessings, on, blessings, yeah
Blessing, on, blessings, on, blessings, yeah, yeah

Hard man, hard man tough
Didn't let nobody test his patience
Sitting in this room with his blinds closed
I've been, I've been dark
Took some time to find the light the day bruh
Looking for my soul through the window

Heard that I was done and my time's up
Heard I had to build from the ground, up
Heard that they was painting me
With no paint on the picture
But I'll paint you the picture
It's easier to believe it
It's easier to see it through the screens
'Cause it sounds so bright
When we're all just living that dream

All these flaws, all these flaws they may
Leave a few cuts and scrapes
To the day my days are done
I wouldn't let all these falls
Make these old bones break
Finally found my wave
Bless the day, bless the day

Blessing, on, blessings, on, blessings, yeah
Blessing, on, blessings, on, blessings, yeah, yeah

Blind man, blind man talks

Couldn't hate with his imagination
Couldn't see the moon through the window
