

Hello

Scarlet Pleasure

Don't know why it have to be
Painful every time we meet
How come we can't even say hello, hello
You see me in a different light
It's killing me homicide
How come we can't even say hello, hello

Not much has changed
I'm still the same
Why am I different to you?
Those happy days
They went away
Girl for a while you must have felt something too

Five years from now you won't remember
Ten years from now I'm just a stranger

Don't know why it have to be
Painful every time we meet
How come we can't even say hello, hello
You see me in a different light
It's killing me homicide
How come we can't even say hello, hello

Say hello

I tell you this
One thing I'll miss
Is waking up next to you
I lost a friend
It's not the end
But for a while you must have felt something too

Five years from now you won't remember
Ten years from now I'm just a stranger

Don't know why it have to be
Painful every time we meet
How come we can't even say hello, hello
You see me in a different light
It's killing me homicide
How come we can't even say hello, hello

Say hello
