

Push-Ups

Scarlet Pleasure

I woke up, was feeling lazy
Checked my phone, Siri, am I crazy?
Been this way since you went silent
I'm in the back doing push-ups in the garden, oh yeah, oh yeah

It's been a while since we last checked in
You fucked my mind, turned me into a simp
My friends say I'm losing my grip
I get so restless without you

Running up the stairs
Working triceps on the chairs
I do it for you, only for you
I'm stuck behind
White picket fence
It don't make sense, no
Ooh, ooh, ooh

I woke up, was feeling lazy
Checked my phone, Siri, am I crazy?
Been this way since you went silent
I'm in the back doing push-ups in the garden, oh yeah
Say you wanna be my baby
Dirty dancing, I could be your Swayze
Take me back to where we started
Not by myself doing push-ups in the garden, oh yeah, oh yeah

Pushing up and down
Too bad you're not around
Pushing up and down
Too bad you're not around

It's no cap, it's no lie, it's for real
I get so restless without you

Running up the stairs
Working triceps on the chairs
I do it for you, only for you
I'm stuck behind
White picket fence
It don't make sense, no
It don't make sense, no

I woke up, was feeling lazy
Checked my phone, Siri, am I crazy?
Been this way since you went silent
I'm in the back doing push-ups in the garden, oh yeah
Say you wanna be my baby
Dirty dancing, I could be your Swayze
Take me back to where we started
