

CHXSEN PATH

Scarlxrd

I could never stop (Pull, pull)
Turn my back to the line that I crossed (Wheel!)
I made the plan now it's time to fucking rock (Pull up that boy)
You was following the path, now you're lost, ah (Wheel!)

Gotta wipe your hands when you shoot something like this. Rah
Weh di bloodclaat do yuh? Siddung, siddung
It's Scarlxrd, duh
AKVRI
Gotta hit them with the classic flow, yeah
A-A-Aye, PULSE, this shits slaps

Going in hard, Scarlxrd in charge
Who woulda thought I would make it this far?
Really the opps, that's what you are
You was the man now you falling apart
Going in hard, Scarlxrd in charge
Who woulda thought I would make it this far?
Really the opps, that's what you are
You was the man now you falling apart, aye

Time to put my focus towards the shit that helps me fly
No more lost indulgence in the shit that wastes my life, uh
Dedicated progress, that's the reason I'm alive, uh
Happiest in moments when my values all align, uh
Bitch, if I drop, I just get up again
Elevate life from the life in my head
Stereotyped from decisions I left
Fuck all the hype, it's the truth I expect
Don't give a fuck if I run out of friends
Faith is a must if you're running from death
Keep your mouth shut or they'll find you with lead
Fame is a crutch, I'm still happy with less (Eurgh)
Okay, watch me really do it, I was never gone, be one and done
Can't end up like so and so, I been her for far too long
Hate starts surfacing, I can't let it up
List of operations, time to tick it of and burn it up
Think we'll disengaged until we unchain
I'm here with PULSE, it's perfect timing, bitch, we never late
I guess I levitate, hustle for seven days
It's only me inside this fucking brain (Move)
I want less, I think "things" are lame
You all think that I live for the gain
But you're wrong, all this bullshit is a waste
I've been living lessons to avoid an early grave
I live for more, I stay well connected to my faith
Introspective message got you thinkin' I'm insane
You gon' all regret it, time you're spending on the chase
Your goals not your own, they're those of people you pertain
Now you're miserable
Whole life spent invested in the lies from the digital
Standard of life comes from storys mindless, fictional
All your so called ideas come from some subliminal
Is this your design here? Is it unoriginal?
Live inside a nightmare, you find irresistible
Mind is filled with spyware, living right is difficult
Fuck it, we don't fight fair, break you in the spiritual, God

My thoughts invasive
I can't let go of remaining
I have control of prevailing
It hurts to show I'm mistaken
Worst than you with degrading
I work then prove I'm updating
Who says they choose my engraving?
It hurts to show I'm mistaken (Wheel!)

I could never stop
Turn my back to the line that I crossed
I made the plan now it's time to fucking rock
You was following the path now you're lost (Argh, argh)
