I ain't got no soul to fucking sell a bitch
I don't share the answers or the sedatives
Felt up way more pain than what I'm mentioning
Walk this path alone, I'm on my extra-shit
I don't linger on feelings, I'm so relentless
Dreament up most of my reasons to live life express (Yeah-yeah)
Hide and seek with my demons, who gon' pop out next? (Ooh)
Easy breaking through ceilings when you're hot as shit

Yeah, darkness in my eyes, uh
I'm up and on the grind like I still ain't got no life, uh
Tell 'em speak their truth, but when I do it, it's a crime, uh
Everyone's so fucked up and addicted to the lies, yeah
The construct is all in my head
These people, they wishing me dead
What goes around, comes back around
I'll see you in Hell with the rest, argh!
I'll see you in Hell with the rest
Hide before it gets ugly
Inside the minds of the comfy
It's cap, these people don't trust me
They lie when they tell me they love me

(Oh my God, never been nothing like you, never been nothing like ya', never been nothing like you, never been nothing like ya', never been nothing like you, never been nothing like you, ayy, ayy, blergh)

Never been nothing like you
Never been nothing like you
Never been nothing like you
Never been nothing like you
Never been nothing like you
Never been nothing like you (Blergh)
Never been nothing like you
Never been nothing like you

You fucking coward, coward, coward, coward
Coward, coward, coward, coward
You fucking coward, coward (Die), coward, coward (Die)
Coward, coward, coward, coward
