Why do I have to be so split both ways inside my mind?
Should I self destruct or stay alive? I can't decide
Maybe I'll just walk along the edge to realize
The shit capable of makes me fucking terrified
Only shit that excites me is my own paradise
Made me flick back 2019, I don't need advice
Made the sacrifice easy, I ain't even think twice
Made the shit look beastly, I ain't ever satisfied

Dig deep, don't stop, keep going
I told myself this fucking words, I lived it how I spoke it
Whisky on rocks keep pouring
Focused on my craft, shout out the bullshit, I'm ignoring
These keys, I've got, I'm open
Made myself a lot, but shit, I did it in the moment
Big leaps, big hops, I keep evolving
They only give you love along with sending their condolence
