"Where is everybody?"

"Oh they're not here, woke up"

"Oh please tell me where they've gone, please tell me."

"Oh I don't know. It's novelty, might not be home."

"Oh look!"

"I know you are."

"Oh you can't ride me, my watch-"

"I don't wanna hear you-"

"Oh no I won't..."

This life won't change
I feel the same
Do you feel the trick or take
What you're used to
Until you feel

That your time is now
I set the blood away
I pray don't blow my brothers
Get what you want
I just control the darkness
That's not my fucking life
Bleeding until I'm numb with
I cannot till I crave
Until I feel
Until you feel
How do I feel

Now I made it, breaking rules
This life won't change
I feel the same
Do you feel the trick or take
What you're used to
Until you feel
That your time is now
Are they chosen
What if the scars are
With broken words unspoken
My action led to fame
I know I'll be okay
Sometimes I feel inside I'm Sometimes I feel it die
Do you feel
That this life was meant for you
For you
For you
For you

And I wish for
Is there forces, four seasons
Is there forces, four seasons
Is there forces, four seasons
