

Hate Me Then.

Scarlxrd

Weh the bloodcat do you? Siddung siddung
Okay, yeah
Ayo Shoki this go crazy

Tired enough
This shit got me hoping I get going
But I'm silent, uh
Fucking with them potions had me glowing
I survived it, uh
I ain't got no motive, I still do this cause I'm styling uh
All that shit in motion lost my mind but I can't find it uh
Back on my free shit
Did a few shots but I can't still feel shit
Going nonstop, now my eyes see three shit
Boring on top, had to dip to the street shit
Nigga I'm ready, fuck going steady
I'm just sick of watching all the days go by
One man heavy, ball pon twenty
I'm just tryna keep my head screwed on tight
DXXMLIFE on my leg
Head to the toe all blacked out
True say I'm a trend
Hop on the wave, make sure you don't crash out
Straps stay on my chest
Heavy ass chain on my neck and it's wrapped 'round
Thought that drip was dead
Now I got niggas running 'round with the sauce now

Got no choice but move in forward since they hacked and leaked my music
I go beast mode, ain't no stalling on me or my evolution
I just listen to my calling damn, I really gotta do it
Give a fuck if niggas hating, I'ma grind for my solution
Everything a nigga did, they really went and dug it up
They just point me to the slaughterhouse when I was coming up
They gon' kick you when you down but they afraid to knuckle up
So when I hear them talk that shit, I don't ever give a fuck

Rhyme so crazy
Tough talk, give it up
Life don't phase me
I'm bored, switch it up
Why try change me?
Lifestyle's sick enough
Vibes on the daily
Feel like I'm lucky, got sevens on sevens
Watch how you looking, I tell 'em to "Get Him!"
Fly out the rookies to level your head
Told 'em to grow up, they grew into mess
Make sure you shut up and shut up your friends
I never stutter, I say what I meant
Now that I'm older, I'm holding the bread
They say my catalogue is getting too big
No wonder niggas don't like me
Way too skilled with this timing
Falling off is exciting
But that shit is not surprising
Slow your roll, you can't buy me

Niggas can't out rhyme me
Niggas really wanna try me

Got no choice but move in forward since they hacked and leaked my music
I go beast mode, ain't no stalling on me or my evolution
I just listen to my calling damn, I really gotta do it
Give a fuck if niggas hating, I'ma grind for my solution
Everything a nigga did, they really went and dug it up
They just point me to the slaughterhouse when I was coming up
They gon' kick you when you down but they afraid to knuckle up
So when I hear them talk that shit, I don't ever give a fuck
