

I NEED A PATH

Scarlxrd

"Weh di bloodclaat do yuh? Siddung, siddung!"
Drop after drop
"Versus"
"Captain?"
"It's totally brutal"
It's Scarlxrd, duh

Envy and tension, you feel it inside
Stay with the blessings, I'm living the ride
Prayed up, I stay up, I'm living my life
Can't even mention the times that I tried
Never complain while telling a lie
I'll never mention the change in the tied
Still put in effort, this shit been a grind
Tell me the truth, I hate when you lie

All black with North Face
Stacks gon' change your faith
I don't take no breaks
Clearly I don't need this but I'd rather feel more safe
Buried the past, I had to get loud
Look at me now, they think that I'm fake
Still gotta last, steady relapse
I can't relax when I'm stuck in a maze
I've made mistakes
Self educate for the self hate, uh
When did the lord turn to hellraiser? Uh
Let them all hate 'cause I'm self made, uh
Nigga, I had to go faster on different chapters, not on the same page, uh
Chained and free
All of you want it, I've got no space to breathe
What I'm becoming is nothing I should be
Tired of following, I just wanna be me
Want to be me
Ignite my fire deeply
Give me a path
I need a path, I need a path
Feel this fucking deeply
Give me a path
I need a path, I need a path
But is it too late?
But is it too late?

Envy and tension, you feel it inside
Stay with the blessings, I'm living the ride
Prayed up, I stay up, I'm living my life
Can't even mention the times that I tried
Never complain while telling a lie
I'll never mention the change in the tied
Still put in effort, this shit been a grind
Tell me the truth, I hate when you lie
