

D-Drop after drop
Yeah, yeah
"Pull up, pull up, wheel!"
L-L-LxrdAudix
Ay

Am I supposed to go to places where it brings me Hell?
Am I supposed to fix the problem or just leave it there?
The time is passing y'all, I know you feel the fucking stress
I send a hit right to your dome and hope you feel it less

You don't even like yourself
In a place where no one else helps
And now we out here ready for death
I'm always gon' be running from doubt, I'm trying
And it's a long way down
Ha, ah

Tryna turn the right way, ah
Brace yourself
All y'all been forgetting, I won't ever back down
In a different setting, I ain't tryna lash out
Playing in my face like I'm the one you left out
Ok, your questions just make me less down
I just hope they won't forget me when they step out
Feelings getting buried, I can't deal with them now
One day they'll get emptied and I won't be around, uh

You don't even like yourself
In a place where no one else helps
Now we out here ready for death
I'm always gon' be running from doubt, I'm trying
And it's a long way down
Ha, ah
