

I'm not a mess
Lay it to rest
I'm not a mess
Lay it to rest
I'm not a mess
Lay it to rest
I'm not a mess
Lay it to rest

Leave them tripping when I boss up
They want nothing when I start up
We don't care where you come from
All you niggas really washed up
Lxrd's about to do it larger
Slipping up and then you can't run
All I think about is commas
Getting money with my partners

I'm not a mess
Lay it to rest
I'm not a mess
Lay it to rest
I'm not a mess
Lay it to rest
I'm not a mess
Lay it to rest

I'm not afraid
I am the hero inside every face
Never beneath any thought you could say
Somehow unconscious of feelings of fame
Feelings to change
I'm not a mess
I'm doing great
Never decay
Ay
Loneliness isn't a game
It fucks with your brain
You against you now you're feeling insane
Most of my tendencies died in the past you're not bringing it up to my timeline
I only talk about money and fucking these thotties 'cause that's what my life's like
Self esteem higher than most so I went to go get it now I got the limelight
All of this drink made me sway and I'm toking on something to fuck with my eyesight

I'm not a mess
Lay it to rest
I'm not a mess
Lay it to rest
I'm not a mess
Lay it to rest
I'm not a mess
Lay it to rest

Leave them tripping when I boss up

They want nothing when I start up
We don't care where you come from
Slipping up and then you can't run
All I think about is commas
Getting money with my partners
One day you'll need saving
We got used to all the hatred
How can I feel love
I ain't felt shit lately
So much in one touch
Even she couldn't save me
Now I can't hold on
I've felt numb lately

I'm not a mess
Lay it to rest
I'm not a mess
Lay it to rest
I'm not a mess
Lay it to rest
I'm not a mess
Lay it to rest
I'm not a mess
Lay it to rest
I'm not a mess
Lay it to rest
I'm not a mess
Lay it to rest
I'm not a mess
Lay it to rest

They all tell me calm down
I just lost my mind and I think its too late
Living on the run now
I just pray to God that I'll get it today
Living isn't fun now
Got me thinking damn I should die today
I should clear my mind out
All the time it's got me fucking filled with rage

Rise, to, fall
