Scarlxrd

You were undecided
I don't wanna fight with ya
You just keep on typing
But I can't talk to you oh no
Talk to you
When you're like this
When you're like this

What the fuck girl
Why you fuck me and leave scratches on my back
You know I pretend to care
Emotions slipping through the cracks
In my life I say whatever
You know scar don't second guess
I'm the trend-setter 'bout to set the trend again
Ha ha

Games gripped tight in my fist bitch I ain't letting go
No
Eight years later pockets fatter then they've ever been Cash when I think
5 mill for the keys
Understand I'm breaded
And I ain't even turn thirty yet

Like, when did I get so big?
Fame can kiss on my cheeks
Fuck boys think that they're sick
Never been sicker than me
Pussy you wet like a softy, yeah
I keep my vibe like itachi, yeah
Shades when I walk in the lobby, yeah
Who in the fuck is gon stop me, yeah
Classic flows I been did those
When I'm fed up I get up and ghoste
Had the game controlled with the mic in my face spit venom and go

I see tripple 6 I'm in hell again
Risked in all my chips and lost the will to do things separate
Stepped inside the gates I feel the weight it brought me severance
I don't give a fuck the shit they say is never relevant
This is my defence go kill yourself cus that's my preference
The afterlife has got me so adventurous
You all criticise through your lenses
But you would swap lives with me in a second

Still working from the crib
Make my bag then I dip
Fuck y'all I take trips
I ain't in the house all day
On the beach with my bitch
We ain't in here most days
Catch a flight let it hit
God
Bitch start some
Bitch start some

Bitch start some

What?

You were undecided
I don't wanna fight with ya
You just keep on typing
But I can't talk to you oh no
I can't talk to you
When you're like this
When you're like this

Late night sitting on your own
I know your lonely babe
Up scrolling through your phone
Why don't you call on me
Just give me a minute I'll pull up on you have you thinking that you was my girl
You know that I'm bad for ya
I'll leave you hurt
Hennessy
I know you're drunk when you're texting me
Girl I'm surprised that you remember me
We fuck and then act like we enemies
Girl you really me crazy you're my remedy
Never told a soul that you lay next to me
I know I'm like your soul I'm like your ecstasy
I know it's fun to reminisce all about the past but I can't no more

You were undecided
I don't wanna fight with ya
You just keep on typing
But I can't talk to you oh no
Talk to you ho oh
When your like this
When your like this
