

Missing Antidote

Scarlxd

Y-Y-You're now tuned into LxrdAudix
"Pull up, pull up, wheel!"
You won't believe this nonsense
Ay, yah
Yeah

I do shit that they can't figure out
Seamless from the jaw, uh
No leaks, we just smooth them out
Bite me and you fall, uh
Poison in my system now
Missing antidote, uh
No cure for my screaming sound

We don't get frustrated, just embrace the fact it's over, please
Software gets updated in the places hardware oversees Always out here gaining, they be hating 'cause they know they're weak
We can get to fading, hope you training for the shadow beast
Seek help? That's a "Hell, no"
This the pain they need
Deep self, showing that I'm flawed
But it's plain to see
Shout out to my hope
That's the road that lead to misery
Always walk alone
That's the code
I'm my nemesis and lastly
I'm gaslit
Wait, there's no such thing as "Gaslit"
I'm past it, ay
I don't fear shit (No)
Unless it's
Keeping holes in caskets
The death shit
Where'd you sell your soul?
Breaking the deal
I don't care about no demon hoe
Inside my fitted gold nuggets making millions, aye
Breaking the seal
I don't care about my feelings, hoe
Internal mission, I said "Fuck it, this might steal my faith"
Background, I cashed out
They forgetting I'm the last out
I lash out, I make them fucking back down
I can tell
You keep up with the sad foul
You can drown, oh

They never ready, I throw what they give
With the control of self esteem
I'm out the game, the game's complete
I'm on my way to snatch the glitz
I route my pain to make it less
All of the rope to hang me shrinks
Hate my phone it makes me sick
Waste of time, gotta limit that shit (Fuck, huh, uh)
Gotta watch how time I'm spending on shit

It don't even make sense
Making money really kinda had me in a grip
Being rich, it made sense
Really had to pull myself up to the top
Even when a nigga slipped
I never listen to talk that they giving
Emotions just run through my writtens
I made my decision, I'd rather stay hidden
The hate that I get it just thickens my skin again I been so callus
Don't think my karma will catch up, I did some sad stuff
Still fake the smile like an actor, uh
If you was me you would panic, uh
Seeing the darkness is standard
Pussy, I've burnt all my bridges, the ashes look better with laughter, uh Worlds wants the fame or the riches, I'm fine with just getting the latter, gotta move faster
I know that God is still rocking out with us just based the level of cash th at we count up
If pride is gon' come before niggas fall I guess, I'll never make something
I'm really proud of, fuck

Ha, Scar-Lxrd
It's Scarlxrd, duh
"Weh di bloodcلاat do yuh? Siddung, siddung!"
"Well, how are you? Alright? Boys gotta"
