Ayy, ayy, ayy, ayy, ayy, ayy (Move)

Reap what I sow, take back the control
I never needed to show my face, so here you go
I prosper in darkness and walk alone, why share my soul?
My thinking's sporadic, I'm feeling composed
My opposite grows, I'm blessed I know
Reap what I sow, take back the control
I never needed to show my face, so here you go
I prosper in darkness and walk alone, why share my soul?
My thinking's sporadic, I'm feeling composed
My opposite grows, I'm blessed I know

Deeply invested, and yet to regret it
Found what I wanted in life, I have to go get it
I won't share the method
All of my moves are precise and so effective
I'm glad I'm rejected
I'm done with sharin' my mind, I've gotta protect it
I'm rich 'cause I'm restless
Big nigga doing this to grow
I ain't ever breaking, I'm the stone
Living out my life like it's the wrong
Spending out more time 'cause I'm the God
Speaking to myself 'cause I'm the one
Realized the wrongs, now I'm everlasting at the front
Never had money to eat
Now it's thirty thousand on a watch, security in front
You could get killed by the dogs
Fuck the league, fuck the league, lapping niggas with fatigue
'Bout to live that long life, take a look at my physique
All I ever do is dream, all I know is succeed
I don't do shit part-time, I get stacks just to speak
New level, new level, I invent new levels
Had to run away and find peace, out the mix, I feel better
Now I'm seeing all the medals, fuck the shit that's not essential
I don't care about my image, or aesthetics, or pretendin'

Reap what I sow, take back the control
I never needed to show my face, so here you go
I prosper in darkness and walk alone, why share my soul?
My thinking's sporadic, I'm feeling composed
My opposite grows, I'm blessed I know

Drastically improving, I just had to change my fate
Stuck on self improvement, I don't care about the game
Drastically improving, I just had to change my fate
Stuck on self-improvement, I don't care about the game
Ruff, ruff
Chee, scar-lxrd, hey, ayy
