Another lesson learned
I'll always fucking burn you first
I'm turning ruthless again, ah

Isolation's over, reminiscing nonstop
When my vision's got lost, dedicated to my care
Meditation got me where, never try me, they won't dare
Perfect timing, can't compare, I'm aligning with my fear

Land slide
You're running scared
Tryna destroy my mind

Stay on my own, I don't ever trust you bitches
That's pain from the throne but I ducked it for a minute
Escaped from the soul now I'm searching for a limit
Hate, how they cope, I ain't feel them fucking disses, bitch

I destroyed all the parts of me that were fucking weak, you know
But I can't fucking save the thought of me, it all has to go
Rise a defence
Demons in me tempted, pieces of my past
I can take an L but it could never make me sweat
I could spend time thinking on the shit that I regret
Ah, that's regret
Bitch, I came from nothing so I'll never take a rest
Grinding going all in, lost my mind, I can't pretend
Working on my patients, getting higher, I suspend
