

Perhaps Yxu'll Understand

Scarlxrd

It's Scarlxrd, duh
Yeah
Pu-pu-pull up that boy, wheel up
AKVRI
A-A-Aye, Pulse, that shit slaps

Leave me if I dissappoint
Do the way I do this make you mad, uh?
I ain't gotta change to make ammends, uh
People fucking miserable
All my energy I must protect, uh
Bitch, just trust the process and relax, uh (Siddung, siddung)
Since your feeling different from just dealing with the strain
Slipping when you listen to the fiction that's displayed
Tripping, but who isn't tripping in the modern age?
Sink into addiction like you'll ever be the same
I could go insane with all my success
Acting like a dropout how we change the fucking subject
I'm supposed to challenge what I know until it's perfect
Weakness lurks inside, but it's something I ain't learn yet, uh

Yeah-yeah-yeah, oh
LxrdAudix
Weh, the bloodclut do yuh? Siddung, siddung
Yeah-yeah-yeah, oh
Yeah-yeah-yeah, oh
Yeah-yeah-yeah, oh-oh

Y'all done got your big dreams from the TV
All these written statements in my brain look like graffiti
I can't reminisce on better days, I don't believe it
You don't even like those fucking feelings that you're feeling
Momma always taught me: "Dominate the game completely"
But I taught myself to keep on going 'till they fear me
This is not no talent, this is growing up with demons
Yuh, that shit my fault, how I see the world beneath me
Oh, did I step?
To move on civil's a mistake if I change (If I change)
You have to live your life the same if you wait (You wait, yeah)
Everything I wanna get I don't chase (I don't chase, yeah, uh)

Pu-pu-pull up that boy, wheel up
I didn't ask to be here (To be here)
It's Scarlxrd, bitch
Pull up, pull up, pull up

My eyes roll back to a place I fell
It's inevitable, still inside my shell
See, the difference is cold 'cause their faith lay dead (Wheel)
Tryna keep myself control is a constant test
Overworking and undulging the price I spend
Thinking positive to grow, but sometimes I can't It's getting harder just to live with the times I've failed
That's the reason every season I rise and scale
Picking pieces out the meaning to hide my trial
Killing weakness with a reason inside my head
Always speaking like I never designed my hell

Pu-pu-pull up that boy, wheel up, wheel
