I've been on the liquor I've been burning loud Exes in my phone they try and text me now
All these fucking questions got me stressing out
So I puff my trees at the local branch
I don't stick around
I'm so foul
Red cards got me wow
Wolvo my home town
My brain won't allow
All these fucking doubts
They tell me slow down and let my hair down, yeye
I hardly go out now I'm sipping shit I can't pronounce like Scarlxrd came in, walked on, fat cheques
This is the shit that I spit when I'm gone of the ritalin, I'm no affiliate I like to kill this shit steady I'm feeling it how do I see these things both eyes closed might go vision it I'll get bigger than this whole devision I'm the builder building e ver building

I can't lose I got the plan
I don't think they understand man
I feel like I'm Alice in Wonderland
I'm getting lit with the mad hatter
I find the loot like I've got a tracker
I put my self on a mad standard Spitting out food of my own platter
I live my life like it doesn't matter

Scarlxrd came in, walked on, fat cheques, red x, saviour, do or die like what's next, back off cause we turnt up, live my life like so what, we gone kill it in a second man, like work for m
