My attention span lost interest
I'm burning these bridges like incense
Keep your two cents instant, you should bin them it's intense not pretend
Why you always tryna start shit
You don't know where man's started
Came from a home so heartless, sorry if I'm actually guarded, mind of an artist
Cold hearted
Martian kid lives in the artic
Creating carnage understand that I've got this
The wind can't blow
I still can't miss aim to the left of the target
Every enemy sapping my energy
In loving memory
You ain't shit
I knew I had to get adios vamonos
Sitting in silence would make me sick
Sending me back to foundations
Changing my state of vibration, wrecking my own reputation
I see myself inside all my frustrations (Yeah)
Now the wait's over
Tell me how I lost my composure
I cut ties, no I don't know her
Dusted that shit off my right shoulder (Yuh)
High key lively, low-key sinister
I'm calculated in ways you can't think of
I had the players in place before the shit kicked off
If the Queen's heads not involved then it's Hasta la Vista
Can't worry bout stunting (Yeah)
I'm not worried bout nothing
I'm touching the surface, scratching and yawning like it's the morning
Can't forfeit or abort this
Hit the spliff and start coughing up corpses
Lonely child in my torment I chase the vision like whiskey, understand that that's nothing

Blessed, black and still alive
That's a low blow Mazz, you've got no control
I see all the fear in your eyes
Just wait till it's dark and the snakes in the grass at night
You barking bear but do you bite
Hype online get off the site, your caps is locked but do you fight?

Keep your advice, we do not listen to anyone
Me and my niggas are fine
Making it sound how I want it
Fear's all in the mind
Close my eyes and the future's bright
Way up the level to keep me alive I want it all, yeah that's mine (Uh) Time's short I can't waste it
Really done with this basic shit
None of you out there really know me
We create and get faded (uh)
The squad tapping out really isn't likely
Been upsetting the flow, like we don't like peace!

Filled with bravery

Shit done changed me, I'm still the same deep down at the heart Been wavy si nce 18, lately I'm shady
You don't wanna start
No time to be shaky
No buts, no maybes
These days I'm on guard
I'm spaced and spacey
All of my niggas that came through stepped through looking like stars
Ring the alarm
I went and put myself on
Despite all the remarks of my narcissistic charge this shit
Posted in my best friend side chick's whip for the laugh (Mad!)
I knew one girl she's like Mazz
I ain't seen you in time and you don't make time
Like bitch I haven't got [?]
Fall back!
Your contour's great, your personalities trash
Rebound, you're that I hate to offend you
I know this shits petty and sad but
You're not her and you're not special, nor do you owe me man
So [?] What you thought, I've been here before
I guess I'm just still hung up on the past (Ahaha)
I've been down some I've been drinking
Fuck knows what my Mom's prolly thinking (Yeah)
I just embrace all these highs and lows
I'm turnt up with the city, fucking up these shows with my bros!
