WNDWS
He feels safer saying nothing
At least then he can't say the wrong thing

All I do is win
I don't ever count my losses
Level headed, play pretend, make you think that, I don't got it
Ain't no shit I regret, I stay lowkey, now I'm popping
All that shit in my head, ain't pretty or melodic
Ah
Messed it up, can you keep it shut?
Kill the message true
Nah bitch we ain't done
I just levelled up
Shit don't register
I'm already good
Fuck competitors
Fuck the sentiment
Fuck just let me run
Fuck just let me run

I know I'm numb, at least I'm free (Ayy, yeah)
I cut you off, can't hear your words, nah, nah
Don't say you love me when it's R.I.P
When you're the one that's dying first
Oh

Heavyweight force in my Nikes
Way too high that niggas can't reach
I'm aware that nobody likes me it's been that way since I swept up scenes
No ones Scarlxrd wavy I've surfed their seas and there not that deep
Mask on executioner
Heads are coming off clean
They can't rattle my speech
All Scar does is scream
I'll just wait on my timing keep that energy
Niggas gon' see
All I wanna do I just breath
Shits so cold at the peak
No ones built just like me better keep moving or you gon' freeze
Alone at the top, I'm not sharing the come up
These niggas just children still stuck inside grown-ups
I'm not no civilian reaching another
I hustled way harder than all of the others
Throwing in the towel for the bitter shit
Crowns lightweight I'm ditching it
Sounds of hate I'm living it
Found my place I'm feeling it

All I do is win
I don't ever count my losses
Level headed, play pretend, make you think that, I don't got it
Ain't no shit I regret, I stay lowkey, now I'm popping
All that shit in my head, ain't pretty or melodic
Ah
