

Spite

Scarlxd

So now you wanna post up, yuh
Can't sleep where your hoe at, yuh
Swear it's all the same
Saying that you changed when you're sober, ah
Can't control my loose lips, yuh
I'm gone that soda, yeah
Don't look who I came with, uh
You don't know the Scar no, no

Ah, give me the top
I held my check on the rocks
Sip and I go
I don't get mad anymore
I just tell it how it goes
Always on road
Couldn't catch me on my toes
Always go ride shit yeah you already know, uh
You better not show
I never change I just change what I show

You want to be remind me cause my life will get you down
And my time can get you money but please tell me is that fair?
I don't fight what you want me too gassed up to fucking see
But it's still in my head all the shit you say to me, yeah

I don't know
I don't waste time on the fools
You can't get down with the crew
None of my homies are new
I go away from the view
Shit [?]
I got me two dose than you
The world don't watch your moves
I got better shit to do
4 in his room
I'm so gone
But [?]
Is it bad is it you
I know you're alone
But I can't go
Now she was the wrong one
I got bad with my light one
And I really shouldn't say
But it spit to my face got me thinkin' I'm an old one
She was for her bro now
So bad to the core yeah yeah
Didn't say she would be broke huh
Thinkin' I was always in control, yeah
You wanted space
So I gave you that space
Don't tell me you're alone
Yeah I had to clench my fists
It helps me with my temper control
This is the shit that I spit
When I'm sittin' inside on my own
But fuck it I'm gonna turn up
With all of my woes

You want to be remind me cause my life will get you down
And my time can get you money but please tell me it's that fair
I don't fight what you want me to gassed up to fucking to fucking see
But it's still in my head all the shit you say to me, yeah
