I had to boost my stamina
I still live like a bachelor
My shawty ass got bigger in diameter
I've been living comfy at this calibre

I vacate the city now my view is panoramic uh
I feel like I'm Bruce Wayne
Mask on then I vanish uh
In the shadows moody
Pockets looking fatter aye
Brought her to my new cave then I blew her bag up
Bitch I'm the man to my core
You know when I walk through the door
You know that I'm ready re
You know that I'm ready for more
He got the hammer like Thor

All these flashing lights got me blinded in the face
Searching through the crowd but I still can't find my mates uh
Yeah the music loud in the chest if fell the bass uh
If I take this now then I'm about to be a spaceman

Just stay over there if you was hating on niggas before then just keep that shit up to the end
I never needed a reason before but shit now I'm 'a lay it to rest
Can't give a fuck 'bout your feeling little boy we gon' run this shit up 'ti

Looking fatigued
Thought you was up like us
Told you you shouldn't compete

Nigga, I know that they all watch me
Just switched out my truck bigger wheels new seats

Tryna see her make out with another 10 before I beat

Fell in love with the lifestyle running up checks and living our dream
Fuck what's next I'm here right now and the path to the goal looks clean
