

King of All

Scars of Life

Obscurity to irrelevance
I'm nothing to you, broken once again
Nothing stems from nothing there
A wall that holds you immune to all I am

A life, that holds, no love
Just a shell of misery
Set me free

All I am I owe to you
This life you stole from me
I'm just the king of all that lie in ruins can you see

I want to heal these scars I bare
I'm always trying to see you once again
Forever etched inside of me you walked out of this world so easily

A life, that holds, no love
Just a shell of misery
Set me free

All I am I owe to you
This life you stole from me
I'm just the king of all that lie in ruins can you see

Walk away from you like I always do, turn away
I'm the king of all
Just a king of all
I'm the king of all
Just a king of all
