

Laying Stars To Sleep

Scars of Tomorrow

I no longer open my eyes...
And I no longer open my eyes
As I wish to...
To embrace this
The beauty of love
Feel the silence
And I can't wait
For it all to turn black

As the soul whispers
And I long to feel this
When everything goes
It fades to black

Shatter...
Bleed for your...
Pretend...
Redesign your....
Your own
For life
For death
For peace
No one
Has justified
Justified what we've done
No one
Justified
Justified what we done

When the sun finally sets
It would be it's last
To never rise again (4x)

Your world breeds death (4x)
