

Tasted Every Tear

Scars on 45

Whatever you want
Whatever you needing
Whatever you feel
I'll bring it all back around

I promise you this
I promise I'm bleeding
Take it easy on me now
Take it easy on me now

I only wish for you to stay
Say you'll never walk away at all

Kiss me oh kiss me
Under the covers
Hide from the world now
For we feel like no others
And I'm sorry so sorry
That I put you through all this
I only hope now that you see
That I tasted every tear on your lips
That I tasted every tear on your lips

Ask me your questions
I can give you no answers
I'm turning the tables
You've had too many chances

I promise you one thing
I'll never walk away with arms to hold you for
Because falling fills my memories

I only wish for you to stay
Say you'll never walk away at all

Kiss me oh kiss me
Under the covers
Hide from the world now
For we feel like no others
And I'm sorry so sorry
That I put you through all this
I only hope now that you see
That I tasted every tear on your lips
That I tasted every tear on your lips

Don't walk away and watch me fall
They'll turn away and watch us both fall down
I won't walk away and watch you fall

Kiss me oh kiss me
Under the covers
Hide from the world now
For we feel like no others
And I'm sorry so sorry
That I put you through all this
That I tasted every tear on your lips

That I tasted every tear on your lips
That I tasted every tear on your lips
That I tasted every tear on your lips
