

Tomorrow Won't Die Too Soon

Scars on 45

A half a kiss for a half of your heart is no remedy, no
But you've a light that lights a heavy room
So when the darkness fades to a distant memory, no
I'll be there to remind you
I'll be there to remind you
Turn your face to me, darling
Kiss me, kiss me, kiss me
When there's nothing left at all
Yeah, your burning lips
They will cushion every fall
There's nothing we can do for yesterday
It only ever stood between us
Whenever you're beside me
There is no hell on earth I won't go through
Nothing we can do for yesterday
It only ever stood between us
If you hold me closer
Tomorrow won't die too soon
(Tomorrow won't die too soon)
We walked along through the pain and the glory
Only rage enough could stay this card
Read between the lines of our broken story
My hope is in your arms
My hope is in your arms
Turn your face to me, darling
Kiss me, kiss me, kiss me
When there's nothing left at all
Yeah, your burning lips
They will cushion every fall
There's nothing we can do for yesterday
It only ever stood between us
Whenever you're beside me
There is no hell on earth I won't go through
Nothing we can do for yesterday
It only ever stood between us
If you hold me closer
Tomorrow won't die too soon
Tomorrow won't die too soon
Tomorrow won't die too soon
Tomorrow won't die too soon
