

You're the Proof

Scars on 45

She's alone in her room
With a sea of tears that she can't see through
We've been going through a black spot

Well, she cries and she cries
And she screams out loud, "God, please tell me why
Are we going through a black spot?"

Be careful what I say
Be sure of what I do
'Cause when it blows over I want one thing
And that's being at home with you

Don't say it's over
For I am nothing without you
The world's on our shoulders
I'm the pudding and you're the proof
If you say it's over
I'm completely lost and I am screwed
Lean on my shoulder
Words have no meaning
I'll sing out my feelings for you

He's been out on the town
With a drink in hand
So he don't feel down
We've been going through a black spot

So he talks and he talks
[?] all day drinking fights that we've fought
We've been going through a black spot

I'll be careful what I say
Be sure of what I do
'Cause when it blows over I want one thing
And that's being at home with you

Don't say it's over
For I am nothing without you
The world's on our shoulders
I'm the pudding and you're the proof
If you say it's over
I'll completely lost and I am screwed
Lean on my shoulder
Words have no meaning
I'll sing out my feelings for you

Don't say it's over
For I am nothing without you
Lean on my shoulder
Words have no meaning
I'll sing out my feelings for you
