

Imposter

Scars on Broadway

Say hello, what's your name?
Have you bled before?
You look familiar so I see you wanna bleed some more
Gave you the number to the telephone
Now I got a new world I can call my own

Lets take the imposters, and throw them in the room with the others
Like the bastard who smiles at your face and makes you suffer
Oh what a disaster, cause now I gotta find the motherfucker
The imposter, dressed in the outfit undercover

Booked a flight, took it to an island in the Rio'
Impress me with your skills and hand me off another kilo
Thought I'd need some escape and I'd get some rest
Then it hit me all the sudden what had caused this stress

Lets take the imposters, and throw them in the room with the others
Like the bastard who smiles at your face and makes you suffer
Oh what a disaster, cause now I gotta find the motherfucker
The imposter, dressed in the outfit undercover

Lets take the imposters and throw them in the room with the others
Like the bastard, smiles at your face, smiles at your face and makes you suffer
Oh what a disaster, cause now I gotta find, now I gotta kill the motherfucker
The imposter, dressed in the outfit undercover

Dressed in the outfit undercover, dressed in the outfit undercover
Say hello what's your name (Undercover)
Have you bled before (Undercover)
Dressed in the outfit undercover
Say hello what's your name (Undercover)
Have you bled before (Undercover)
Dressed in the outfit undercover
