

Stranger

Scars on Broadway

There's no one around now, it's just you and me
If you got a secret, then let it be
Life is full of danger and it makes you cry
Maybe I'm a stranger while it's on your mind

Everything your daddy said just wasn't true
I was there before you, you had no clue
We are all just numbers that are growing old
Never trust a people who have no soul

There's no one around now, it's just you and me
Don't keep all your secrets away from me
Life is full of danger and it passed you by
Maybe I'm a stranger while it's on your mind

Maybe I'm a stranger while it's on your mind
Maybe I'm a stranger while it's on your mind
Maybe I'm a stranger while it's on your mind
Maybe I'm a stranger while it's on your mind
Maybe I'm a stranger while it's on your mind
