

Climax

Scene Queen

Porn is sick till it's over
And you're sitting alone
First the climax, then drop off, all sad on your phone
Why do all good things end, why do all good things go

Summer is fleeting and then it gets cold
Your music is hot, until it gets old
Why do all good things end, why do all good things go

Nothing lasts forever
I've seen that
This feels like forever
So it makes me sad

I wanted to grow up, now i'm scared to age
Your family gets families, then they move away
Why do all good things end, why can't anything stay

A heart full of love is ea-si-er to break
Cuz when there comes pleasure, there always comes pain
Why do all good things end, why can't anything stay

Nothing lasts forever
I've seen that
This feels like forever
So it makes me sad

I'll love you until you die
You make me laugh till I cry
Can you swear on all your life
That you'll be the exception?
Be the exception

The stars are all burning out
You get me so high, I don't wanna come down
Tell me you'll stick around
That you'll be the exception?
Be the exception

Don't let it end
Don't let it-
