

Epic Shores

Schiller

Though I'm falling apart it seems You're giving me all I need to weather the storm Hold tight, I'll be along in dreams Life is about to be like never before

When you breathe
You put me on my knees
and you hold my gaze
When i close my eyes
I'm closer than ever
It took me forever
to feel this way

When you speak
the pain is a pleasure
it only gets better a fever that burns me slow and now I've seen your face you're part of a life that i want and I won't let go

Long nights guarding a broken dream looking to days gone by Instead of the future Whole lives lost in the dark it seems you give me what we all need a reason to be here

When you breathe
the welcome warmth I feel your welcome voice I hear and when i close my eyes I'm closer than ever
if I feel this way
when you speak

I swallow what you say I feed on what you are
and now I've seen your face
you know I can't be close but I'm not so far
