

Falling

Schiller

Captured by your eyes
I can see the other side
These whispering sounds
From cold walls
Sharpens the silence
When I surrender now

Falling, I'm falling down
Falling, I'm falling
Falling, I'm falling down
Falling down

Take me wandering
Down the lane of winters passed
Rich, golden sounds
From great halls
Fragrance lingers
I will still remember you

Falling, I'm falling down
Falling, I'm falling
Falling, I'm falling down
Falling down

Still standing in your world
Still playing farewell in vain
Calling out to my hero
Calling out just to hear your name

Falling, I'm falling down
Falling, I'm falling

Calling out just to hear your name
