

Jamie

Aliocha Schneider

Jaime, Jaime, give me some news
'Cause lately I've been worried about you
I don't know why
But somehow I can feel
Your sadness and it keeps me reckless

Jaime, Jaime, tell me I'm wrong
That it's only my imagination
Shouldn't tell you that but I heard
You crying in a dream that I had
You told me I've been sad
For too long, I'm going home

Jaime, I love you like a brother
And you know what a brother
Means to me
Jaime, I love you like a brother
And you know what a brother
Means to me

What it means to me

Jaime, Jaime, answer your phone
I've been trying to reach you all day long
I feel it in my bones, there's something wrong
Going on, am I wrong?
This is my saddest song
And it's not where you belong

Jaime, I love you like a brother
And you know what a brother
Means to me
Jaime, I love you like a brother
And you know what a brother
Means to me

What it means to me
