

Cheater

School Gyrls

N-credible, School Gyrls, let's go

Cheater, cheater
You're a, you're a cheater
You're a cheater

Cheater, cheater
You're a, you're a cheater
You're a cheater

Cheater, cheater
You're a, you're a cheater
You're a cheater

Cheater, cheater
You're a, you're a, you're a
You're a cheater

You thought that I would just be another one of your toys
You thought I wouldn't found out but you went and told your boys
Your boys told my girls and my girls they put me up on game
See the plan you had ended up being super lame (loser!)
So you called me last night acting like you were extra sorry (lame!)
Then you passed me a letter today as soon as you saw me
Saying "Baby, I know that I did you wrong, but I promise I'm done"

Well it's not that I don't wanna' believe you because I do
But every time I try to you give me a reason not to
This is gonna' be the easiest song that I've ever sung
All my girls sing along

It goes like, oh, you won't get another love song
You're a cheater after everything that you've done wrong
You're a cheater no you won't get another word out of me
You're a cheat ch-ch-ch-ch-ch-ch-cheater

Cheater, cheater
You're a, you're a cheater
You're a cheater

Cheater, cheater
You're a, you're a cheater
you're a cheater

I bet you thought that I wouldn't bounce back but I did
Now I'm stronger than I was before you ever cheated
Why would I, yeah, why would I waste a minute on you?
When I look this cute, look this cute, yeah

Still, I can't check my voicemails without hearing your voice
And you send me messages through every one of your boys
I think you're obsessed with me, this is ridiculous, please
I don't need you in my world, I'm fine chilling with my girls

And it's not that I don't wanna' believe you because I do
But every time I try to you give me a reason not to
So when N-Credible played this song, we just knew that it would be the one

All my girls sing along

It goes like, oh, you won't get another love song
You're a cheater after everything that you've done wrong
You're a cheater no you won't get another word out of me
You're a cheat ch-ch-ch-ch-ch-ch-cheater

Cheater, cheater
You're a, you're a cheater
You're a cheater

Cheater, cheater
You're a, you're a cheater
You're a cheater

This could've been another love song for you
But you went and messed it up so now we're through
So I'm starting over, just like I told you
I'ma be fine now that everyone knows

You're a cheater

Oh, you won't get another love song
You're a cheater after everything that you've done wrong
You're a cheater no you won't get another word out of me
You're a cheat ch-ch-ch-ch-ch-ch-cheater
