

Bury The Tooth Of The Hydra And A Skeleton Army Will Arise

Schoolyard Heroes

There's something eating me from inside out
Guess it doesn't matter what I say
I cough up blood and words that I regret
So long your attention has gone away

These high school words have lost their power
Their meaning bleeds right through this page
I state my case and you impale yourself
On points to you I wish I'd made

[Chorus:]

Let's just pretend this never happened
And we'll be on our way
Even with these scars I can't remember
How it started anyway
Your blood it stains me like a trophy
When I wear it I'm ashamed
Of what I was
Or what I am
Or every thing I could have been

You want some proof?
Crack open my skull
Safe place where evil thoughts reside
These underhanded gestures I make
Do they help you sleep at night?

[Chorus x2]

Burn it down
Burn it down
Burn it down
