Shoutout to Shaun2Krazy!

For my niggas back, I'd give it all up, uh
When they was havin' motion, they ain't call us
You felt like sendin' shots, then, nigga, ball up, uh
You knew I was gonna come back when the fall come

Uh, yeah, when don't I come back?
They just counted us out, tried to re-route, now why they done that?
He keep tryin' act out, shots at his scalp gon' push his mug back
I had to fade away 'cause they ain't show that love back
Too high, can't stay awake, I keep takin' these drug naps
I told you, "Help Is on The Way", and then I brung that Whole heart a product of the gang, because I'm from that
She asked me why I stay away if I'm gon' run back
Uh

Sorry, I can't answer that all
Bae just answer when I call
Swing through and bring them jaws in
Uh
Is you gon' hold your hands out when I fall?
They askin' for handouts and all
Shit hit the fan, now I'm flawed
Uh

'Member makin' palace with the squad, uh
One day I looked up, and they're all gone
Damn, that shit put a whoopin' on me
You know, if you're looking for me
You just gotta pack your bag and book it to me

'Cause if you need me, you know where to find me
They thought I was hiding, whole time I was grinding
Bro said if I'm steppin', then he starvin' right beside me
We start drawin' weapons, hook that nigga to an IV

Heart bleeding, they thought I was dying
I thought they was riding
They turn up igniting
Said they keep on thuggin', I'm the only one who trying
Bro gon' swing that weapon, make it stutter when it's firing

When they crossed me, I ain't see it coming
You had one foot up out the door and I begged you to come in Spent all them days tryna chase it, you ain't see me running
Took all them drugs all to the face to face the pain, no numbin'

You told me never show my hand, 'cause they weigh on the trumpet
I wish Leah still could witness the man I'm becomin'
Beside the highs, hoes, jewelry, and cash, and I'm thumbin'
Just all the last lows, do it, you can overcome it

Uh, mm, uh

Wonder if baby girl watchin' me now, uh
Thought that she couldn't, what's driving me now, uh

I stood, took a look up in the clouds
I seen tears when I smiled
You ain't hear me in a while
Uh

'Cause if you need me, you know where to find me
They thought I was hiding, all the time I was grinding
Bro said if I'm steppin', then he starvin' right beside me
We start drawin' weapons, hook that nigga to an IV

Heart bleeding, they thought I was dying
I thought they was riding
They turn up igniting
Said they keep on thuggin', I'm the only one who trying Bro gon' swing that weapon, make it stutter when it's-
Make it stutter when it's firing
Uh

Make it stutter when it's firing, uh
Make it stutter when it's firing, uh
Make it stutter when it's firing, uh
Make it, ayy, ayy
Make it, make it

Make it stutter when it's firing, uh
