

Horns

Scorey

Uh-uh, uh-uh-uh
Uh-uh, uh-uh-uh (shoutout to Shaun2Krazy)
Uh-uh, uh-uh-uh
Uh, she claimed she an angel, but I seen her horns
I knew love was painful, but it left me torn
Crazy, I still wish we was together more
Wonder if my soulmate was ever born, uh
I brought you a bracelet that you never wore
Your love cut me deeper than a bed of thorns
Threw me in a fire, and you let it burn
I keep fallin' for you, guess I never learned, uh
Always wondered, do you think of me when you do what you do
'Cause before I make decisions all I think about is you
Time, and time again you let me stay, and played me like a fool
'Cause you'd tell me what I did to had you treatin' me so cruel
But you ain't wanna sit with me, I pulled up a seat with you
You couldn't be seen with me, I just though 'bout seein' you
You plannin' on leavin' me, I worried about keepin' you
And you kept on deceivin' me, I kept it in bein' with you
I heard that you can't duck a Cupid shot
Fuck love, I tied it, then I threw the knot, uh
Them broken hearts was just like suicide, uh
You left me stranded for a cooler guy, at least you thought
No one's perfect, couldn't make you when I work, at least I fought
Steady searchin', you don't know how much it hurt tryna read your thoughts
One day you'll see what you lost, how the good always end up crossed?
I was just 14 with my heart on my sleeve, back then I ain't know what that cost
She claim she an angel, but I seen her horns
I knew love was painful, but it left me torn
Crazy, I still wish we was together more
Wonder if my soulmate was ever born, uh
I brought you a bracelet that you never wore
Your love cut me deeper than a bed of thorns
Threw me in a fire, and you let it burn
I keep fallin' for you, guess I never learn
