

Uh-uh, uh
Will you be wit' me?
Uh-uh, uh, uh
Uh-uh, uh, be wit' me?
Dark days, uh, uh-uh
Uh-uh, uh, uh-uh
Dark days, uh, uh-uh
(Oh, Hicks made this shit!)
Uh-uh, uh

It's just telling me the truth, you ain't speak wit' me
I just want hear you telling me you believe in me
If I lose it, can you promise you gon' be with me?
Fuck fans, seems like everyone decieving me
Dark days, everyday it's beating me
Dark wave, no I can't keep the peace
Heartaches, everyone's leaving me
Stargaze, tell me what you see in me

Tryna wish upon a star for the guys back
Every night had them dreams, we would lie, let my sleep alarmed
It's wishing for my mind back
I just wanna get some things in the line for some peace in my mind, like I'd never really find that Wondering where would I be if I would find that I was posted up that wine cellar, [?]
Find deeper so that darkness start crawlin' back
Tryna search for my soul, I hit the boof for my dream, but my heart tryna reach all my goals
From the bottom I rose, I gotta straighten up my neck and my wrist, all that shit be on froze
I be jamming on souls, secrets I seen on these streets, I would never expose
I used to sit up, young, rich, wit' a pole
Now I might drip and just hit up a show

It's just telling me the truth, you ain't speak wit' me
I just want hear you telling me you believe in me
If I lose it, can you promise you gon' be with me?
Fuck fans, seems like everyone decieving me
