

back together

Scott Helman

Your heartbeat stopped in late December
We still haven't read your letter
But we can try to get a little bit better
'Cause you brought everybody back together

Sean had us worried for a sec
We would find him on the wrong corner
And Jack always drank a bit too much Thought he'd end up in ditch, but I never thought you'd be the one to go first
'Cause you always had your shit together

Took a flight down
We're with your mom now
Singing so loud
Singing so loud

We haven't laughed like this in forever
Raise one up so we remember
Everything we used to do
And it all makes us think of you
So, we took turns trying on your sweater
And drank enough to read your letter
And we can try to get a little bit better
'Cause you brought everybody back together

Oh-oh, oh-oh, oh, oh
Oh-oh, oh-oh, oh, oh
Oh-oh, oh-oh, oh, oh
Oh-oh, oh-oh

Can't help but think of what you'd do
If you went and got a little bit older
And I know you would've torn this town to shit
Rode off in your two door Toyota
I always thought I'd be the one to go first
'Cause I never had my shit together

We haven't laughed like this in forever
Raise one up so we remember
Everything we used to do
And it all makes us think of you
So, we took turns trying on your sweater
And drank enough to read your letter
And we can try to get a little bit better
'Cause you brought everybody back together

Oh-oh, oh-oh, oh, oh
Oh-oh, oh-oh, oh, oh
Oh-oh, oh-oh, oh, oh
Oh-oh, oh-oh

Oh-oh, oh-oh, oh, oh
Oh-oh, oh-oh, oh, oh
Oh-oh, oh-oh, oh, oh
We haven't laughed like this in forever, yeah
Oh-oh, oh-oh, oh, oh

Oh-oh, oh-oh, oh, oh
And we can try to get a little bit better
'Cause you brought everybody back together
