

Cry Cry Cry

Scott Helman

I don't care that you're gone
And you didn't even say goodbye
That's alright, I'm still here
And you're kinda just wasted my time
There's always something beautiful about the rain
Even when it pours you know you'll meet the day
When everything starts to stop

The sun comes up, and I'm doing okay
And I don't need your heart to show me the way
And in the night the pain goes away
You're no longer here, but I don't cry, cry, cry
Cry, cry, cry

People said I'd be dead from the sorrow that I felt when you left
But I lived
Ain't that nice?
There's a lot of things about you that I'm starting now to realize
You were turning everything into a game
And I told you that I didn't wanna play
Go ahead and watch me go on

The sun comes up, and I'm doing okay
And I don't need your heart to show me the way
And in the night the pain goes away
You're no longer here, but I don't cry, cry, cry
Cry, cry, cry

My love is gone forever
Darling, you're immature
I got this feeling in my chest that I could be alone
I finally removed ya
But you just had to call
You had to prove that I was breaking
But I wasn't anymore

The sun comes up, I'm feeling okay
I don't need your heart to show me the way
And in the night the pain goes away
You're no longer here, but I don't cry, cry, cry

The sun comes up, and I'm doing okay
I don't need your car to drive in my lane
And in the night the pain goes away
You're no longer here, but I don't cry, cry, cry
Cry, cry, cry
