Origami

Scott Helman

Sometime your skin feels like it's only paper thin
And you don't understand the world you're living in
Oh, if you want to you can come to me
I'll give you structure, give you company

Yeah, now we got the foundations
Come on, lay it on my body
And we got no limitations
Shapes we're making with our bodies, with our bodies, oh yeah

I'll fold into you
I'm watching you fold into me
You know you're all I want to do
We're making origami, origami

And when you speak the words, like birds fall off your tongue
But love is fragile it can always come undone
So I will be here for you everyday
'Cause there was nothing right before you came

Yeah now we got the foundations
Come on, lay it on my body
And we got no limitations
Shapes we're making with our bodies, with our bodies, oh yeah

I'll fold into you
I'm watching you fold into me
You know you're all I want to do
We're making origami, origami

She crossed her legs, then uncrossed her legs
And looked at me, and said
"If you think it's getting heavy, let's rearrange"
And now we're lying on our backs in different shapes
In different shapes

I'll fold into you
I'm watching you fold into me
You know you're all I want to do
We're making origami, origami

I'll fold into you
I'm watching you fold into me
You know you're all I want to do
We're making origami, origami
