

That Sweater

Scott Helman

Here we go oh God I know,
The words just flow
Because I'm getting low lower than you've seen me get before
And please don't ignore me
Like I'm something you forgot at the corner store
Take a look at my book I got a whole world to explore
I won't be a bore where
Love's infectious
It's a battle for sure.
Can't you see me coming back for war?

And don't stab me,
Across the place, we in disgrace
Now you can't relate to my everyday life
I was doing it right till you came along and broke my stride

Volume high enough to drown it out
Too in love and on my homie's couch.
Jesus, why you gotta be so loud.
Let me be the one to make you shout
Oh, oh oh, I-I love it when you wear that sweater.
Oh, oh oh, oh I-I love it when you wear that sweater.

You see it's all about the mood and not about the show
Or the cool kids sitting in the corner like they're hiding away
From the way they used to fall in love with someone new every Saturday
I want you bad like they say in every cliché song about teenage love
Just a few cruel, jumbled up years
And it feels like they come and go
And then you won't be here

Volume high not to drown it out
Too in love and on my homie's couch.
Jesus, why you gotta be so loud.
Let me be the one to make you shout
Oh, oh oh, I-I love it when you wear that sweater.
Oh, oh oh, oh I-I love it when you wear that sweater

Oh why you gotta stick around at the breakfast table,
Looking better than the night before
Baby, why you gotta make me so unstable?
The first time I saw you, that's what you wore.
That sweater, that sweater.
I hear the bell ring, the sunshine
Crawling over the set of swings.
And I saw you in the sunlight

Volume high enough to drown it out
Too in love and on my homie's couch.
Jesus, why you gotta be so loud.
Let me be the one to make you shout
Oh, oh oh,

Volume high enough to drown it out
Too in love and on my homie's couch.
Jesus, why you gotta be so loud.
Let me be the one to make you shout

Oh, oh oh, I-I love it when you wear that sweater.
Oh, oh oh, oh I-I love it when you wear that sweater
(Oh I love it when you wear that sweater)
I-I love it when you wear that sweater.
(So why you gotta stick around)
I-I love it when you wear that sweater.
