

The Lion

Scott Helman

All these roads and all these lights
I get a feeling that I might just have to fight
It's not that easy for me

You used to be my only friend until I
Turned myself away and now I can't pretend, oh no
You're always coming for me, yeah

I heard roars
Rumbling through the city and I got that feeling
I'm alone, and I know
Can't tame him if he wants to

Fight, oh lord
When I heard him growling and I dropped there kneeling
It's not the end, we gotta stand
Cause the Lion's just around the bend

I took a razor to the sky
And tried to cut it open just so I could find
A little bit of sunshine

But you were there you showed your teeth and there was Nothing between us but the will in me, I know
You're always coming to feed, yeah

I heard roars
Rumbling through the city and I got that feeling
I'm alone, and I know
Can't tame him if he wants to

Fight, oh lord
When I heard him growling and I dropped there kneeling
It's not the end, we gotta stand
Cause the Lion's just around the bend

Oh oh oh,
The Lion's just around the bend
Oh oh oh,
Yeah

I heard roars
Rumbling through the city and I got that feeling
I'm alone, and I know
Can't tame him if he wants to

Fight, oh lord
When I heard him growling and I dropped there kneeling
It's not the end, we gotta stand
Cause the Lion's just around the bend
