

Bittersweet

Scott Matthew

You are here and I am there
I'm underground you're in the air
I'm starting to believe
That you're a seed and i'm a tree
I'm alone, you're company
Never the twain shall meet
Oh ain't it bittersweet

And you stop and I start
To prepare for a broken heart now
Lets agree to disagree
And you can sail to shore as i drift out to sea

I move to fast, you're slow to start
I'm in the clouds, your in the past
I'm simple, you're elite
I'm happiness you're misery
You like to laugh but just at me
Never the twain shall meet
Oh ain't it bittersweet

And you stop and I start
To prepare for a broken heart now
Lets agree to disagree
And you can sail to shore as i drift out to sea

Run , now the hope has gone
Now there's no fun now we're undone

And you stop and I start
To prepare for a broken heart now
Lets agree to disagree

And you stop and I start
To prepare for a broken heart now
Lets agree to disagree
We agree to disagree

And you can sail to shore as I drift out to sea
