

Effigy

Scott Matthew

A burning effigy of you and me
It's something that we used to be
As we make believe that this is still a home

All that's left of me
This effigy
A reminder there was sanity
Have i lost the will to know where i belong

Or find my way home
My way home
If there's a place for us
Will it be enough

Like a child i will learn how to walk
This fire could lead me throug the dark
But the difference is a child knows how to love

Is this effigy the enemy
It's silent , it won't talk to me
If i find my way , i still could be alone

Find my way home
My way home
If there's a place for us
Will it be enough
There's effigy of you and me
