

Ode

Scott Matthew

Intellect, a wit , a charm
A legacy of gallantry
Though a life may be gone
A light lingers on

And we all will lament
But with what we know we do our best
Above all, there is success
Because i remember tenderness

So the light the light`s not gone
Let`s raise our hopes that you`re not far
The privilege of singing you a song
The honor of knowing such a one

So the light the light is on
Lets raise a toast to wit and charm
The privilege of knowing such a one
